

PRESS RELEASE

Milan, 31 October 2007 – Eurofly S.p.A. hereby reports that, today, the auditing firm Deloitte & Touche S.p.A. has issued its report concerning the limited audit of the report on operations for the first half of 2007.

The firm gave a positive assessment, but with certain significant items of note. In particular, the auditing firm has pointed to a receivable on the half-year accounts in the amount of roughly €1.5 million, related to an expected compensation payment to the company for costs incurred for damages to an aircraft in first semester 2007 during catering resupply activities.

The full report is available in Italian.
